Agenda items

9:30 — 9:40	Breakfast, networking, conversation	All
9:40 — 9:55	Welcome, introduction, logistics Overview of developments since March Stakeholder meeting Advisory Committee Meeting with Secretary Regan	Jen Schmitz, TJCOG
9:55 — 10:30	Part 2: Stakeholder Perspectives Stakeholders in the Jordan Lake watershed often deal with challenges in silos; we hope to illuminate commonalities and strengthen relationships across sectors and disciplines by highlighting perspectives from various groups. Part 2 will cover wastewater treatment entities.	Bob Patterson, City of Burlington
10:30 — 10:45	Jordan Lake Watershed Conservation Strategy The conservation model and associated strategy are getting ready to print – TLC will provide updates from last meeting's weighting exercise, get feedback on goals, and report status	Leigh Ann Hammerbacher, Triangle Land Conservancy
10:45 — 11:25	Workplan Updates: Looking Forward to Rulemaking While the purpose of the JLOW management framework is to develop a broad, integrated water management framework, one of the key areas it will address is the upcoming Jordan Lake Nutrient Rules readoption process required of the NCDEQ. This will drive the timeline for JLOW efforts over the next year.	Jen Schmitz, TJCOG Patrick Beggs, NCDWR JLOW Advisory Committee
11:25 — 11:30	Closing remarks, next steps, adjourn	Jen Schmitz, TJCOG
